

Free Music Distance Learning Tool – Coronavirus (COVID – 19)

We would like to offer you a free online tool to allow scope for music distance learning in light of the current Coronavirus pandemic.

Students login from home to TeachingGadget.com and attempt music assessments, games, listening exercises and music theory quizzes. These are all automatically marked and tracking data is made available for the teacher.

The website has hundreds of bespoke downloadable worksheets and interactive e-learning resources.)

This offer is being made available through arts funding and is totally free for a limited time.
